

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to recommend Devan Johnson in his pursuit of employment at McMaster Carr. I have been Devan's Baseball Coach at the University of Chicago for the past 3 years. In that time, Devan has demonstrated high character, outstanding work ethic and has been a great example of leadership for his teammates. He is highly intelligent, disciplined, and motivated. He is also empathetic, well mannered, and fun to be around. The University of Chicago is reputedly among the most rigorous higher education institutions in the world. Not only has he been able to keep up with his studies here, while competing at a high level in a grueling athletic setting, but he's also been a mentor for his younger teammates, a leader by example, and has made everyone around him better. I will never run out of good things to say about Devan Johnson. He is a great example of what it takes to be an outstanding employee, a leader, and I'm confident this young man will excel at anything he so chooses. His mentality and work ethic are as strong as anyone I've ever been around.

Sincerely,

Kevin Tyrrell
